Continuing to Take Care of Business

Texas City’s business community plays a critical role in combatting the pandemic. Partnering with the Texas City-La Marque Chamber of Commerce and the City of La Marque we encourage you to continue “Taking Care of Business,” to help keep employees, customers and communities safe, reignite the economy and help defeat the pandemic.

Now that safe and effective vaccines are available, every business must rally around a common goal: accelerate vaccinations, reopen in a safe way, and help defeat the #COVID19 pandemic.

Storm water drainage is a big concern for the Public Works Department. The City has spent millions of dollars to create, improve, and maintain our drainage system over the years. But for our system to work at its best, we need all of our citizens to help. Littering and illegal dumping plays a huge role in the effectiveness of our drainage system. All trash thrown onto the ground eventually ends up in our storm inlets, pipes and ditches. This trash will at best slow the drainage, and at worst block it completely. Aluminum cans, plastic bags and bottles, foam cups, lumber, tires, and even mattresses have all been pulled from our storm drain system. Please help us to keep the storm water moving by not littering. Also, please call 409-643-5810 if you need help in getting rid of any trash.

April is National Poetry Month, so I’ve been jumping though over 200 years of beautiful, brilliant poetry with: African American Poetry : 250 Years of Struggle & Song - edited by Kevin Young. What better way to celebrate the rich history of our nation from colonial times to the present, than with poetry? Poetry has always been a powerful, personal way to give a voice to the voiceless, and this anthology is one of the finest I have seen in it’s breadth of authors and depths of beauty, pain, struggle, and triumph. Whether you take on the epic task of reading cover to cover, or dip your toes in bit by bit in the stream of history, you are certain to find ew favorites at the turn of every page.
